She requested the members to use earphones/headphones and attend the meeting from a well-lit place to ensure good audio and video quality, and thereafter requested Mr. Gaurav Goel, Chairperson cum Managing Director of the Meeting, to call the meeting to order.

The Chairman confirmed that the requisite quorum was present and called the meeting to order and requested Ms. Priyanka Gera to commence the proceedings.

The Annual General Meeting and Corrigendum to the AGM notice and Annual Report 2025-26, together with the Directors' Report, Audited Financial Statements, and other accompanying documents was already circulated to the members and took as read.

The Company Secretary further requested the Chairman to address the stakeholders present.

The Chairman extended a very warm welcome to all the stakeholders who were present virtually at the 31st Annual General Meeting of the Company. The Chairman highlighted the Company's journey over the past thirty-one years, from a small technology business in Kolkata with limited capital to an established organisation built on the principles of genuine products, customer trust and service. He noted that the Company had historically been known as a distribution house and had listed on the BSE SME platform in 2023. He further stated that, over the past few years, the Company had steadily shifted its focus towards its own retail stores, with FY26 marking a significant year in which retail emerged as the fastest-growing and most valuable part of the Company's business.

The Market We Grew In

The Chairman stated that it was a challenging year to achieve growth. In the first quarter of calendar year 2026, smartphone shipments in India fell by about 8% as the trade cleared old stock and buyers held back, and the move to costlier phones came through unevenly. Despite the challenging market, the Company grew its revenue by 17.6%, and its profit grew faster still. He stated that the year that tested the whole industry became, for the Company, the year that proved the direction it had taken.

Financial Results

The Chairman apprised that for the year ended 31 March 2026, the Company delivered the strongest results in its history.

- Revenue from operations rose 17.6% to ₹1,315.7 crore, ahead of the 12 - 16% guided at the start of the year.
- Gross margin improved by 28 basis points to 5.91%, the highest recorded, and reached 6.30% in the second half.
- EBITDA grew 29.5% to ₹30.6 crore,
- Profit after tax grew 35% to ₹14.2 crore and earnings per share rose from ₹6.12 to ₹7.97.
- Return on equity improved to 13.9%, and the Company closed the year with a net worth of ₹102 crore and a cash balance of ₹35.9 crore.

He further stated that the Company's profit grew at close to twice the rate of its sales, reflecting that the Company was becoming a better business, and not only a larger one. The Board had decided not to recommend a dividend for the year and had preferred to put these earnings back into new stores and the working capital they needed.

Retail Leads the Way

The Chairman stated that Logica ran four separate businesses: retail, distribution, e-commerce and exports, with retail having moved to the centre of the Company's growth. The Company's own stores, run on a COCO model, grew 60% to ₹278 crore and accounted for 21% of revenue, against 16% a year ago. The Company opened 24 net new stores, taking the count from 53 to 77, increased selling space from about 24,500 to over 38,000 square feet and opened fifteen Samsung cafes. Retail revenue had compounded at 46% a year over the last four years and earned a better margin and return on capital than the Company's other businesses.

He further stated that the operating margin in the second half was a little below the same period a year ago due to the cost of building the retail network, with twenty-five stores being less than a year old. A store past its first year did roughly two and a half times the monthly business of a new store, and as the stores came of age, the related costs were expected to turn into profit.

Distribution, E-commerce and Exports

The Chairman stated that Distribution, the Company's steadiest business, grew 6% to ₹540 crore, supported by a new Tier-I mandate for Samsung Notebooks across West Bengal, Delhi-NCR, Uttar Pradesh and Haryana and the exclusive distribution of Infinix in Gurgaon. E-commerce grew 16% to ₹329.5 crore, with focus on a cleaner and more profitable mix. In exports, the Company had stepped back in the first half and returned where the margins made sense. Across all four businesses, the Company worked with more than thirty brands and held six Tier-I or exclusive mandates, including Samsung, HP, Vivo, Realme, Infinix and ASUS.

Recognised by Our Partners

The Chairman stated that during the year, the Company received fourteen recognitions from seven of its brand and marketplace partners. HP named the Company Distributor of the Year in Kolkata, Vivo honoured it with a Retail Excellence Award in Moscow, OPPO placed it in its Premier Club Platinum and Amazon gave it the STEP Customer Hero award, with further recognition from Flipkart, Lenovo and OnePlus.

Priorities for the Year Ahead

The Chairman stated that for FY27, the Company expected to take its retail network past 100 stores and selling space past 60,000 square feet, with retail revenue expected to grow by more than 50% and the operating margin to move towards 2.7 to 3.0%. Distribution, E-commerce and Exports were expected to grow at a healthy high-single-digit rate.

The Company was also developing flagship experience formats, widening its brand mix and funding the expansion through its own accruals and a measured amount of working-capital borrowing. Over the coming years, the Company intended to build a retail network of around 500 stores across India's cities and smaller towns. Over five years, revenue had grown at about 21% a year, EBITDA at 44% and profit after tax at 54%.

Running the Business Responsibly

The Chairman stated that the Company continued to focus on timely disclosure, sound internal controls and honest dealing. Following its move to SAP, the Company had run the whole business on a single digital backbone, providing a clearer and faster view of its stores and stock, and had strengthened its leadership across retail, finance and technology. He further stated that this was the second year of the Company's CSR work, through which it supported education, distribution of essential items, nutrition initiatives for the underprivileged, and care of abandoned and vulnerable cattle. The Chairman then concluded his address and requested the Company Secretary to take the proceedings forward.

The Chairman thereafter requested the Company Secretary to take the proceedings forward.

He stated that the Company had received certain queries from Members in connection with the matters set out in the Notice of the AGM and requested the Company Secretary to read out the questions received, which were thereafter taken up one by one for consideration and response.

1. What drove FY26 growth for the company, and did it exceed your target? What kind of turnover growth company is targeting in FY27?

The Chairman stated that the Company's growth in FY26 was primarily driven by its retail business, with growth in the number of retail stores and their ageing contributing to revenue and profitability. Retail revenue grew by 60% and contributed approximately ₹100 crore to the overall revenue growth of about ₹200 crore, while the other business verticals also contributed by growing in the range of 5% to 10%. He further stated that for FY27, the Company expected revenue to grow by approximately 30% as against 17.6% in the previous year and expected to cross the ₹1,700 crore mark.

2. What explains the margin improvement in FY26?, Going forward how do we expect it to behave in FY27 and onwards?

The Chairman stated that the Company's profitability grew by 35% in FY26, primarily due to the increase in the share of retail revenue, which rose from approximately 16% in FY25 to 21–21.5% in FY26. He further stated that profitability was higher in the retail vertical compared to the other verticals and that, for FY27, the Company expected profits to continue to grow by approximately 30% to 35%.

3. Are the new stores earning adequate returns? What is the investment in a typical new retail store and how long it takes to recover the investment? How many Retail stores are we targeting to open in FY27 and what kind of investment will be required for the same? How are we going to arrange the funds for our retail expansion?

The Chairman stated that the new retail stores were earning adequate returns. He explained that a typical new store required a capital expenditure of ₹10–20 lakh for building the store and ₹55–75 lakh towards inventory, resulting in an average investment of approximately ₹80 lakh per store. With a retail gross margin of approximately 9% and adequate sales being achieved within a few months, the investment was generally recovered in about 2–3 months, although certain stores could take up to 6 months. He further stated that the Company, which had 77 stores, planned to increase the number to 102 stores by the end of FY27, with the required funds to be arranged through internal accruals and working capital borrowings.

4. Why is company retaining exports if domestic retail offers better returns?

The Chairman stated that exports continued to be an integral part of the Company's business, with every vertical being important to Logica. He noted that the continuous depreciation of the rupee over the last three years had made Indian products more competitive globally. Accordingly, the Company remained selective in its export business and undertook exports where better margins were available. While exports were not being pursued at a rapid pace, the Company intended to continue the business selectively, focusing on opportunities offering better margins.

5. How comfortable is management with the increase in debt and finance costs?

The Chairman stated that the Company had availed additional debt during FY26 to maintain its growth momentum, with the borrowings being utilised solely for working capital requirements. He further stated that the Company's interest coverage ratio stood at 2.06, demonstrating its ability to service its debt obligations, and that the management considered the increased debt and finance costs to be completely manageable.

The Chairman concluded his remarks by thanking the employees, brand and channel partners, customers and shareholders for their continued support, trust and contribution to the Company. He stated that as the Company entered its fourth decade, it remained committed to its growth journey and expressed confidence in building the next phase of Logica's story together. He thereafter thanked the Members for their participation and requested the Company Secretary to proceed with the formal conclusion of the meeting.

The Company Secretary presented a vote of thanks to the Chairman and expressed sincere gratitude to all the members for their co-operation in conducting the meeting. She also thanked all the Directors, KMPs, the Scrutinizer and the Auditors of the Company who had joined the meeting.

She informed the members that the e-voting on the NSDL platform would continue to be available for the next 15 minutes, and requested those members who had not yet cast their votes to do so.

She further informed that the results of the voting on each resolution would be determined by adding the votes of remote e-voting and the e-voting facility available during the AGM, and that Mr. Altab Uddin Kazi, the Scrutinizer for the e-voting process, would be submitting his report thereon.

She stated that, as the Company Secretary, she had been authorised to declare the results of the voting, and that the same would be uploaded on the Company's website, the stock exchange website and NSDL's website in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Companies Act and the SEBI LODR Regulations, on or before October 02, 2026.

With the permission of the Chairman, she declared the AGM of the Company as concluded after the end of 15 minutes from that time, following the completion of voting by the members.

She thanked the members once again for attending the AGM, and noted that the Company deeply valued their time, support and trust. She added that the Company looked forward to their continued association and wished them good health and well-being until the next Annual General Meeting.

The AGM concluded at 13:26 hours, upon completion of the voting by the Members.

Note: The above should not be construed to be the minutes of the 31st Annual General Meeting of the Company.
